POUTUARONGO TE REO MĀORI

Bachelor of Te Reo Māori

Discover the vibrant world of Te Reo Māori and its culture. Examine past and present customs, history and traditions through the study of Te Reo Māori and Iwi and Hapū studies. Participate in a whānau learning environment.

If your desire is to speak, understand and become an exponent of te reo Māori, this qualification will get you there with its proven methods for intensive, accelerated language learning.

Fostering competency alongside a love and respect for te Reo Māori is a key aspiration at Te Wānanga o Raukawa. You will be immersed in the language with daily classes and attend marae noho throughout the year to provide context and depth to your learnings. Over the course of three years you will continue to expand on your kete of vocabulary, grammar, waiata, karakia and understanding of tikanga and kawa in a fun but challenging environment. Studies include research of your own iwi, hapū and marae so you can stand confidently knowing who you are.

As a graduate you will be well positioned for further advanced study on the Poutāhū Te Reo Māori or other postgraduate programmes; or progress your study towards a range of careers including teaching, broadcasting, research, policy development and more.

The reo is a taonga; halt the decline and revive
